

Children's Play, Learning and Development BTEC

Key Information

Contact:	Ms Daniel mdaniel-obeata@westonfavellacademy.org
Exam Board:	Edexcel
Summary of Subject:	BTEC Firsts in Children's Play, Learning and Development can help you take your first steps towards a career in early years' education. You will learn essential skills such as encouraging good behaviour and helping children with their speech, reading and writing.
Units:	Unit 1: Patterns of Child Development (Exam unit) Unit 2: Promoting Children's Development Through Play Unit 3: The Principles of Early Years Practice

How can I support my child at home?

Essential Revision: BTEC First in Children's Play, Learning and Development Student Book Pearson ISBN- 9781447944614 Cost - £23.75 	To achieve a Level 2 Distinction, I will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Synthesise knowledge of aspects of children's growth and development from birth up to eight years.</li> <li>• Bring together your understanding of the different areas of child development and their interrelation.</li> <li>• Assess the support provided by adults and early years' settings in positively influencing children's development.</li> <li>• Show depth of knowledge and understanding of how children develop in different situations and how adults, such as child minders and teachers, and primary schools support this development.</li> <li>• Draw on your understanding of how adults and early years' settings impact on child development so that you are able to make effective judgements about the potential positive and negative impact.</li> </ul> To achieve a Level 2 Pass, I will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Recall and apply knowledge of the areas of child development and the characteristics of child development from birth up to eight years.</li> <li>• Explore the usual progression of children's development.</li> <li>• Understand the five areas of development and the relationship between them.</li> <li>• Understand how adults and early years' settings support and positively influence children's development and also look at the impact of introducing children to routines.</li> <li>• Understand that child development should be viewed holistically.</li> <li>• Know the characteristics of children's development from birth up to eight years.</li> <li>• Know what to expect at different ages of a child's development and that children develop at different rates.</li> </ul>
--	--

