Raising a concern/complaint

If a candidate (or parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification, Weston Favell Academy encourages an informal resolution in the first instance. This can be undertaken by Raising the concern or complaint in writing to one of the Deputy Principals.

If a concern or complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

All documentation relating to the submission of a formal complaint is available from, and should be returned to The Exams Office. Formal complaints will be logged and acknowledged within 10 working days.

To make a formal complaint, candidates (or parents/carers) must Complete and return a written complaints form.

How a formal complaint is investigated

The head of centre will further investigate or appoint a member of the senior leadership team (who is not involved in the grounds for complaint and has no personal interest in the outcome) to investigate the complaint and report on the findings and conclusion.

The findings and conclusion of any investigation will be provided to the complainant within 2 working weeks.

Internal appeals procedure

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

To submit an appeal, candidates (or parents/carers) must Again complete and return a written appeals form. .

Appeals will be logged and acknowledged within 10 working days.

The appeal will be referred to The Principal.

It will be the responsibility of The Principal to inform the appellant of the final decision of the appeal to inform the appellant of the final conclusion in accordance with the internal appeals procedure.
